An unfiltered, reddish-amber ale which is particularly well-balanced, allowing for complexity of flavour coupled with an unusually smooth and refreshing character

Two Point Pils - Portico Brewing Co., Ipswich, MA, 5.1% abv

A German style Pilsner brewed with just two malts - Pilsner and Carapils - and two hops - Hallertauer Mittelfruh and Wakatu. The flavour is slightly dry but with medium hop bitterness and the barest hint of sweetness. A very refreshing beverage

Peak Organic Fresh Cut Pilsner, Portland, Maine, 4.6% abv

Dry hopped pilsner with aromas of citrus, grass and spice

Harpoon IPA, Boston, MA , 5.9% abv

Beautiful copper in color with floral aroma. So well-rounded, so refreshing and – yes – so drinkable that it pairs perfectly with anything life has to offer

Night Swim'ah, Belgian Wheat Ale - Revival Brewing Co., Cranston, RI, 4.7% abv

Belgian-style Wit flavoured with sweet orange peel, coriander, natural raspberries, and hopped with Citra hops. Sweet and tart meets in the middle and makes this the perfect session ale

Sam '76, Boston, MA 5.0 % abv

By using both lager and ale yeast strains a unique brewing process was developed. Taking two active fermentations and blending them together to create a deliciously harmonious result. A distinct flavour that showcases the slight fruitiness of an ale with the balanced drinkability and smoothness of a lager

Stowaway IPA, Baxter Brewing Co. Maine, 5.3% abv

Huge hop aroma of citrus, pine and grapefruit rind notes with a big, complex and intense hop flavour. The malt flavour up-front turns dry and crisp; full bodied and a dry finish with a pleasant long lasting, hop aftertaste and beautiful lace left in the glass

No Limits Hefeweizen, Two Roads, Stratford, CT, 4.8% abv

Beautifully cloudy with a generous head of foam, a wonderful fruit aroma and a dry finish. A refreshing version of the original; with just a little bit more of everything

G-String - Funky Bow, Lyman, Maine, 5.5% abv

Nice flavorful light malts allow the summer and cascade hops to shine through. With hints of sweet orange and coriander, this pale is unique as it is smooth

Little Cranky Session IPA, Stony Creek, Branford, CT, 4.5% abv

Aggressive, yet crafted to go down easy. Lemon drop and bravo hops lend a fruity hop complexity with lemon and orange highlights

That's my Jam - Owl's Brew Radler, Vermont, 3.8% abv

Inspired by all the best qualities of an apple: bright, crisp flavours, a balance of sweetness and tartness, and a refreshing finish that satisfies. This golden cider looks as bright and clean as it tastes
