The fare for your Ticket will be calculated by us or our Authorised Agent in accordance with the applicable Tariff available at the time you book.

5.2 If we got the price wrong

- (a) We try to make sure that all our fares are displayed correctly. Sometimes mistakes are made and incorrect fares are displayed. If you book a Ticket based on an incorrect fare, we will give you the option to either:
 - (i) pay the difference between what you paid and the correct fare; or
 - (ii) cancel your Ticket and receive a full refund.

You must give us receipts or other documents showing the costs, purchase date and proof that they are non-refundable.
- (c) We will not reimburse any out-of-pocket expenses incurred where it was reasonably obvious that the fare displayed was incorrect.
- (d) The cancellation and refund of fares for flights to/from the U.S. will be made in strict compliance with the U.S. Department of Transportation Enforcement Policy on Mistaken Fares dated 8 May 2015.

 - (i) applicable taxes;
 - (ii) fees and charges imposed by a government or other authority, or by the operator of an airport; and
 - (iii) Government Scheme Costs.
- (b) When you buy a Ticket, we will tell you the amounts for the items set out above. These are shown separately on your Ticket.
- (c) The items above (including amounts) are constantly changing and can be introduced or increased after you have made your booking. If there is a new charge or an increase in any of these items after you have made your booking, we may pass this increased cost onto you, where we are legally allowed to do so.
- (d) You may claim a refund if any of the items set out above are abolished or reduced after you have paid for your Ticket but before the start of the applicable journey. See <https://www.virginatlantic.com/refunds/>.

6 YOUR TICKET, ITINERARY AND MISSING YOUR FLIGHT

Your Ticket is for flights between your departure and final destination airports (via any Stopovers). It does not include ground transportation between airports and between the airport and town terminals.

6.2 Name on the Ticket
The name on your booking, Ticket and passport must be identical.

6.3 Payment for Ticket

6.5 Taking your flights in the right sequence

- (a) Your Ticket is only valid for travel from the departure airport to the final destination airport (via any Stopover) in the agreed sequence. The price you paid is based on our Tariff and the sequence of flights you have booked. Therefore, you must take all flights in the sequence set out in your Ticket and not miss out flights on the journey.
- (b) If you do not take your flights in the agreed sequence (including missing out a flight), your Ticket may not be honoured and may not be valid and we may cancel any onward or return journeys.
- (c) If you do not want to take your flights in the agreed sequence (including missing out a flight), please contact us (<https://flywith.virginatlantic.com/gb/en/contact-us.html>) or an Authorised Agent (if your flights were booked through one) as soon as possible in advance of your journey to discuss your options. Your options will depend on the Ticket type and the applicable Tariff. You may not be able to make any changes to your booking, or you may be required to pay the difference between the price paid for the Ticket and the price of the changed sequence, as well as a change fee. The change fee varies according to the Ticket type and the applicable Tariff and this will be advised to you when you contact us or an Authorised Agent (if you booked through one).
- (d) If you are unable to take your flights in the agreed sequence due to a legitimate change in circumstances (including an Event Beyond Your Control) and you contact us in advance of your journey, we will honour any onward or return journeys if you provide us with proof (to our reasonable satisfaction) of such a change and you will not be required to pay any additional charges.

6.6 If you do not show up for your flight

- (a) If you miss your flight for any reason you must still go to the airport on the day of departure and present yourself to our airport staff. Our staff at the airport will book you onto the next available Virgin Atlantic flight at no extra charge and will not cancel your return or onward journeys. You may be charged extra if:
 - (i) you elect to travel on a Virgin Atlantic flight to an alternative destination;
 - (ii) you elect to travel on a flight operated by another carrier; or

- (iii) you elect to travel in a seat that is in a higher booking class than the one you paid for.
- (b) If you do not show up for your flight and do not present yourself to airport staff on the scheduled day of departure, your Ticket may not be valid, may not be honoured and we may cancel your return or onward flights.
- (c) If you still wish to take your return or onward flights then you must contact us or an Authorised Agent (if your Ticket was booked through one), as soon as possible to discuss your options.
- (d) We will honour your return or onward flights (including reinstating these flights if they have already been cancelled, subject to availability in the same booking class) only if:
 - (i) this is permitted by the Tariff that applies to your Ticket and you pay any increased fare, taxes, fees and the applicable change fee (which is dependent on your Ticket type and applicable Tariff); or
 - (ii) you were prevented from showing up for your flight due to a legitimate change in circumstance (including an Event Beyond Your Control) and you provide us with proof (to our reasonable satisfaction) of such an event. If you provide us with this proof then you will not be required to pay any additional charges.
- (e) You should take out appropriate travel insurance to protect you in the event that you miss your flight and have any onward or return journeys cancelled by us. See also Article 11 for refunds.

We or our Authorised Agent (if your Ticket is booked through one) will notify you of these when you book. If you need flexibility with your itinerary, you should make sure that the fare conditions of your Ticket suit your needs. We suggest that you have appropriate travel insurance if they do not.
- (b) Some changes to your itinerary, (for example, the date or route, if you don't take the first flight on your Ticket or if you do not take flights in the agreed sequence) may not be possible at all or may result in a price change. We will let you know if you can make a change and if there is an additional fee or refund when you contact us. We may also charge a change fee for itinerary changes (the amount of which is dependent on the Tariff that applies to your Ticket).
- (c) If you need to change your itinerary by not taking flights in the agreed sequences please also refer to Article 7.

 - (i) try to carry you to your next Stopover or final arrival airport without re-calculating the price of your itinerary;

 - (iii) issue you with a full refund if you are unable to travel during the period of validity of your ticket,

- (c) We will refund any unused part of a Ticket in the event that a Passenger dies before completing the journey.

7.6 Extending the period of validity of a Ticket if you or your travel companion is ill

- (a) If, after you have started your journey:
 - (i) you, or someone travelling with you, unexpectedly become ill and this stops you travelling on your next flight during the period of validity of your Ticket; and
 - (ii) you want to extend the period of validity of your Ticket so you can continue your journey, we may extend the period of validity of your Ticket until a seat in the class for which you hold a Ticket becomes available after the date when you are fit to travel.

- (b) If you want to have the validity of your Ticket extended in accordance with this Article, you must provide us with an official medical certificate confirming your (or your travel companion's) illness and stating when you (or your travel companion) will be fit to travel.
- (c) If the journeys remaining in your Ticket involve one or more Stopover, the period of validity may be extended up to a maximum of three (3) months from the date you (or your travel companion) are certified as medically fit to travel. We will extend the period of validity of the Tickets of other members of your immediate family that are travelling with you.
- (d) If you are accompanying a Passenger who dies during the itinerary, we may change your Ticket by waiving any minimum stay or extending the period of validity.
- (e) If after you have begun your itinerary a member of your immediate family dies, we may change your Ticket, and the Ticket(s) of any immediate family travelling with you, by waiving any minimum stay or extending the period of validity.
